Roundtable Sharing

Location: University of Toronto
Report given by: Christine Marton
Publications:	I have recently published an article in the Journal of Hospital Librarianship that examines the Web presence of hospital libraries and consumer health collections on the public websites of the top ranked rehabilitation hospitals in the United States, with a focus on the highest ranked rehab facility, the Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago. The article is cited in APA style as follows: Marton, C. (2012). The online presence of information services at the rehabilitation institute of Chicago. Journal of Hospital Librarianship, 12(4), 342-350. I would like to encourage all CHIPIG members working with CHI collections in hospital settings to contribute to the Journal of Hospital Librarianship. I am the editor of the Patchwork column, so I look forward to all submissions.
Other news:	INF2135 (Health Sciences Information Resources) students at the U of T iSchool made their group presentations on Canadian consumer health information websites on December 6, the final class of the fall term. CHI websites covered were: AboutKidsHealth, Caring for Kids, Women's Health Matters, Canadian Federation for Sexual Health, SexualityAndU, and Rainbow Health.

Location: Homewood Health Centre
Report given by: Joyce Pharoah
Public events:	Fall Used Booksale brought in $1,045.00.
Staffing:	Erin Bloemberg, Library Technician, arrived at Homewood mid-August. She works Tues. to Thurs, 9-2:30 and Friday 9-3:30 (.66 FTE) and manages the volunteer roster along with building the fiction collection, updating our Consumer Health bibliographies and screening patient requests for information.
Other news:	Once again this year the library remains in the top 3 services rated by our patient population.
